

The Tournament Committee reserve the right in the case of adverse weather to cancel the Final Days play if the deadline set for finishing the tournament is not met.

In the case that this decision is implemented the scores of the day will be cancelled and the result at the end of the previous round will stand.